

My name is [REDACTED] I was granted political asylum in the USA since September 4th 2013.

I used to work for the Colombian High Commissioner for Peace as political adviser during the government of President Alvaro Uribe Velez.

We undertook the disarming, demobilization and imprisoning of more than 50 thousand members of Colombian terrorist organizations. 30 thousand of them were member of the AUC (paramilitary groups).

As well, on May 13th 2008 the government took the administrative decision to extradite to the USA the 13 main paramilitary leaders. I participated actively in the extradition logistics according to my duties at the Presidency of Colombia.

I'm a member of the political group that follows the ideological doctrines of former President Alvaro Uribe. I had to endure a political and judicial persecution due to my publicly known political points of view. Fearful of terrorist retaliation, I decided to seek asylum in the USA on 2011. That asylum was granted, as I said above, on September last year.

Due to the information that I received as part of my official functions at the Office of the Colombian High Commissioner for Peace, I can testify that the former Colombian Attorney General, Viviane Morales and her husband Carlos Alonso Lucio are very closely linked to a wing of the paramilitary groups whose commanders we extradited to the USA (I'm talking about Carlos Mario Jiménez aka "Macaco" and Guillermo Perez aka "Pablo Sevillano").

In several conversations that I have had with American Public Officials I have already transmitted that information.

Several members of our political party, including me, have been judicially and politically persecuted due to our ideological stance: i.e. Luis Carlos Restrepo (Former High Commissioner for Peace and my direct superior while I worked at the Colombian Presidency; currently seeking asylum) and Andrés Felipe Arias (Former Minister of Agriculture and Rural Development [REDACTED]).

I have no doubt that this criminal and atrocious persecution was orchestrated by Attorney General Viviane Morales and her husband in retaliation to the high officials and Cabinet Members of the Government that extradited paramilitary leaders, included the above mentioned aka "Macaco" and aka "Pablo Sevillano".
